Appeal Hearing for Rosemarie Gay, H.R. Wellness, 75 North Main Street

Chair, Mark Beglane opened the public hearing for Rosemarie Gay, H.R. Wellness. Clerk, Charles Gray read the legal notice into the record.

Mr. Beglane said that Attorney Jeffrey Guile sent a letter informing the Board that Attorney LaRocque was unable to attend the Appeal Hearing that evening because his son was involved in a serious skiing accident. He said if the Board is going to grant any continuance they would have to have a vote of the Board or if the Board decides they want to go forward they can go forward. Mr. Gray read the letter from Attorney Guile into the record.

Mr. Beglane asked Ms. Gay when she hired Attorney LaRocque.

Rosemarie Gay said a couple weeks ago. Mr. Beglane asked Ms. Gay what type of continuance she was looking for. Ms. Gay said that she just wanted him to be there with her. Mr. Beglane said that he understood and asked what period of she is looking for. Ms. Gay said that she didn't know what a reasonable time is. Mr. Beglane said that he would prefer have it done on two conditions, one it be very short or if it's a longer period of time agree she would voluntarily cease operations if it is going to be a long continuance until such time it is decided by the Board. He addressed the Board to see what date is good for them.

After further discussion the Board and upon motion duly made by Alfred Geoffrion and seconded by John Garwacki, the Board voted unanimously (5-0) to continue the hearing to March 4, 2013 at 6:00 p.m.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 6:30 p.m.
